About the Conductor

Patrick Botti is the Music Director and Founder of the Waltham Symphony Orchestra. Born in Marseille, France, Maestro Botti studied conducting, piano, solfège, harmony, and voice at the Marseille National Conservatory, the Académie Régionale de Piano in Marseille, the Ecole Normale de Musique in Paris, and the Paris National Conservatory. He holds degrees from the Marseille and Paris National Conservatories, and was the winner of numerous awards and scholarships. He completed post graduate studies in Musicological Research at both the Sorbonne University and the Paris Conservatory and in conducting at the Ecole Normale de Musique de Paris. His conducting teachers have included Jenö Rehak, Franco Ferrara and Pierre Dervaux in Europe and Benjamin Zander, Richard Pittman and Thomas Dunn in the United States. Patrick has guest conducted numerous orchestras worldwide including the Paris Conservatory Orchestra, the BBC and Royal College of Music Orchestras in London, the Luxembourg Radio Television Symphony Orchestra, the French National Radio Orchestra, the Saskatoon Symphony Orchestra in Canada, the Athens Camerata in Greece, the Boston Philharmonic Orchestra, the New England Conservatory Orchestras, the Greater Boston Youth Symphony Orchestra and the Colorado Springs Symphony. His interpretations of both French and American music are acclaimed worldwide, and he has been heard on National Public Radio, the CBC Network (Canada), the BBC (London), and on French National Radio.

About the Soloist

Isabel Oliart is a Junior at Newton North High School and she started studying violin when she was 4 years old. She has played with the Rivers Symphony and the Newton Symphony, and will also be playing with the Boston Youth Symphony in April as the first place winner in their annual concerto competition. She also won first prize at the Roman Totenberg Competition in 2012. She has attended the Killington Summer Music Festival and also the ARIA International Summer Academy, and last year she toured Austria and Hungary with the Boston Youth Symphony. She is a student of Peter Zazofsky.

About the Composer

Seth Hamlin is a composer and arranger working in styles ranging from orchestral to Latin to pop music. His compositions have been heard in live performance and on recordings for groups as diverse as the Thayer Symphony, Commonwealth Shakespeare Company and his own group, Brass Planet. He studied Film Scoring at the Berklee College of Music (most notably with Bill Elliot and Mason Daring) and holds degrees in Trombone from New England Conservatory (where he studied composition with Joe Maneri) and the University of Southern California. He is also the Principal Trombonist with the Waltham Symphony.
